

Roll Up Your Sleeves -There's
Work to be Done!
Let's Discuss Hanford
Cleanup

State of the Hanford Site Meeting
Jan. 8, 2003, 6:30 p.m.
Woodland Park Zoo Auditorium,
Seattle, WA

The Biggest Environmental Cleanup Ever!

WHO?

The Washington State Department of Ecology, U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency; the Tri-Party Agencies responsible for cleaning up the Hanford Site

WHAT?

A discussion among agency officials, public interest groups, Hanford Advisory Board representatives, and you— the public

WHEN and WHERE?

Wednesday, January 8, 6:30 open house 7:00 meeting
Woodland Park Zoo, 50th and Fremont Av. N., Seattle
Need directions? http://zoo.org/zoo_info/planning/directions.htm

FREE PARKING!

WHY?

Get the latest news on Hanford Cleanup.
Learn about cleanup goals and challenges for the upcoming year.
Ask questions and share your opinions.
Get more involved in the public participation process.

If you're interested in protecting our resources and ensuring Hanford Cleanup success, please join us!

Call the Hanford Hotline toll free at (800)321-2008 for more info.

